COHEN BROTHERS.

THIS WEEK,

UNPARALLELED BARGAINS IN SILKS.

ALL-SILK SURAIIS, 23 inches wide, 50c. a yard. Those goods were heretofore sold at $1; $1.25 Surabs now sold at $5c.; $11.88 of all description forwarded to us last week will be offered over our counters at unprecedented values; HEAVY GROS-GRAIN COLORED SILKS-former value $1.25-now 92c.; BEAVY GROS-GRAIN BLACK SILKS, no better ever imported for $1.25, every yard warnied to war-874c, is our rice;

beavy order-trained to wear-6726, is our price;
we shall sell BLACK SATIN RHADAMAS at 6246. We shall sell BLACK SATIN RHADAMAS at 6246. We shall sell BLACK SATIN RHADAMAS at 6246. We have also had 12 pieces very high grade SATAN RHADAME forwarded to us-price $1.15 to $1.35. None among them cost less than $1.85 to import;
There is no end to the SILK FABRICS we have on sale. Our stock comprises all the various new fabrics; it comprises besides lote of bargains. Every yard of silk we sell is warranted to wear; every yard to warranted in price against any house in the United States. A warrant with us means money refunded if the goods are not satisfactory.

Dress Goods.

This department has more than doubled its sales this season over any previous. We have shown what is wanted; we have sold them at prices that have met with little or no competition. We are showing now the largest stock of FRENCH. ENGLISH. AND IOMENTIC DRESS FABRICS our house has ever held. Prices are about half what they were the first of the season. We sell dress fabrics from 6%c., for wool filling, to the finest imported.

Special attention may be called to another lot of CANVASS CLOTHS—all shades, all wool—30c., former price 75c.; ayard for SILK and WOOL COMBINATION SUITING; 29.75 for FRENCH COMBINATION SUITS that were $16; see our 12%c. DRESS GOODS;

10c. a yard for DOUBLE—WIDTH LACE BUNTING.

We also call special attention this week to a large purchase of WHITE GOODS just received comprising in part—MULLS INDIA LINENS. CHECKED MUSLIN, LINEN LAWNS, PLAID MUSLINS, FERSIAN MULLS, EMBROIDERED MUSLINS, ETC.

The Special Hosiery Sale

of last week has been the greatest success of the season. Thousands of pairs were dis-posed of. The goods are of the best makers in Europe, and are sold at considerably less than they cost to import. We continue to sell them at the same prices. Special sales means special prices with us—no specified time.

THE REMOVAL SALE ISAAC HELD'S STOCK

Continues at No. 321 Broad street.

As my future place of business, No. 609 Broad street, next door to Jacob May & Son which is being remodelled, is nearing completion, and as the time draws near for me to I AM DETERMINED NOW MORE THAN EVER TO OCCUPY IT WITH A CLEAN-NEW, AND FRESH STOCK.

In order to do this—to close out the remainder of my present stock—I realize that it must be sacrificed, and I am prepared and shall make the sacrifice. With this end in view; am determined to make this a GALA WEER by offering such NEW ATTRACTIONS in the shape of REDUCED AND UNPRECEDENTED PRICES ON MY STOCK as shall an must close out the same entirely.

I mention among my bargains:

Odds and Ends in Corsetts at see, aplece worth 65c.;

1 of Satin-Linked Parasolus at $1 aplece worth 52c;

1 of Figured Cambric Aprons at 6gc, aplece worth 15c.;
